D6              Em
day after day, alone a hill
    D6                              Em
the man with foolish grin is keeping perfectly still Em7             A7                 D                     Bm
but nobody wants to know him, they can see that he's just a fool Em7               A7
and he never gives an answer
        Dm
but the fool on the hill sees the sun going down C7                        Dm             Dm7   D6
and the eyes in his head see the world spinning round

D6                   Em
well on his way, his head in a cloud
    D6                              Em
the man of a thousand voices talking perfectly loud
    Em7         A7                 D6                  Bm
but nobody ever hears him, or the sound he appears to make Em7               A7
and he never seems to notice
        Dm
but the fool on the hill sees the sun going down
        C7                        Dm             Dm7   D6
and the eyes in his head see the world spinning round

    Em7             A7                 D6                     Bm
