Down Forget -Me-Not Lane Lyrics
Flanagan and Allen

Rainy days don't worry me
There's a rainbow that I can see
And it's waiting for me
Down forget-me-not lane

Fortune never comes that way
I'll keep singing a song each day
Keeping troubles away
From forget-me-not lane

It's just a heaven they made
And if you're a stranger there
You'll find a table well laid
And you're welcome to a chair

There's no high-brow etiquette
Just plain people and once you've met
They will never forget
Down forget-me-not lane

(Allen)
Rainy days don't worry me
There's a rainbow that I can see
And it's waiting for me
Down forget-me-not lane

(Flanagan)
Fortune never comes that way
I'll keep singing a song each day
Keeping troubles away
From forget-me-not lane
It's just a heaven they made
And if you're a stranger there
You'll find a table well laid
And you're welcome to a chair

(Allen)
There's no high-brow etiquette
Just plain people and once you've met

(Both)
They will never forget
Down forget-me-not lane
