A                                       D
Millions screamed to see him do his thing.
                    Em      G               D
Elvis touched the life of ev'ry ear that heard him,
                              A7              D
And they couldn't help but listen when he sang.
        G                                 D           Em/A  D
It's a long way from Memphis to that mansion in the   sky,
        A                                 D     D6 D7
But he kept his faith in Jesus all along,
D                                          D          Em/A  G
It's a long way from Graceland across Jordan to the   Promised Land,
    D             A       A7       D
But Jesus fin'ly came to lead him home.
