OH OH ANTONIO
sung by Florrie Forde 1908

In quaint native dress an Italian maid
Was weeping distress'ed as the streets she strayed
Searching in every part for her bold sweetheart
And his ice-cream cart

Her English was bad
It cannot be denied
And so to herself
In Italian she cried

Oh! Oh! oh Antonio, he's gone away
Left me alone-ee-o, all on my own-ee-o
I want to meet him with his new sweetheart
Then up will go Antonio and his ice-cream cart
So sad grew the plight of this fair young lass
She'd faint at the sight of an ice-cream glass
She dreamed nigh every day he'd come back to stay

Then he'd fade away.

Her old hurdy-gurdy
All day she'd parade
And this she would sing,
To the tunes that it played.

Oh! Oh! Antonio, he's gone away
left me alone-ee-o, all on my own-ee-o
I want to meet him with his new sweetheart
Then up will go Antonio and his ice-cream cart

Oh! Oh! Antonio, he's gone away
Left me alone-ee-o
All on my own-ee-o
I want to meet him with his new sweetheart
Then up will go Antonio and his ice-cream cart
