

Gulf Winds-crd

D Em
 It's only when the high winds blow that I wish my hair was long
 C C D (D9 D)
 Sailing through the autumn leaves singing an ancient song
 D Em
 Or falling in love in the streets at night at the edge of a local square
 C G D (D9 D)
 It's only that I'm here tonight thinking I was there
 D Em
 There are high winds on the pier tonight, my soul departs from me
 C G D (D9 D)
 Striding like Thalia's ghost south on the murky sea
 D Em
 And into midnight's tapestry she fades, ragged and wild
 C G D (D9 D D4)
 Searching down her ancestry in the costume of a Persian child

(ESTRIBILHO)

D Bm
 And gulf winds bring me flying fish that shine in the crescent moon
 A G D
 Show me the horizon where the dawn will break a new
 Bm
 And cool me here on this lonely pier where the heron are flying low
 A G D (D D9)
 Echo the songs my father knew in the towns of Mexico

When I was young my eyes were wise, my father was good to me
 Instead of having a flock of sons he had two other girls and me
 And if we had used our Spanish names, here's the way they'd run
 Thalia, Margarita and Juanita, I'm the middle one.

The screen door kept the demons in as we moved from town to town
 It's hard to be a princess in the States when your skin is brown
 And mama smoothed my worried brow as I leaned on the kitchen door
 Why do you carry the weight, she said, of the world and maybe more?

(ESTRIBILHO)

My grandfathers were ministers and it came on down the line
 My father preached in his parents' church when he was ten years and nine
 And mama dressed in parishoners' clothes and didn't believe in hell
 Her daddy fought the DAR, if he'd lived I'd have known him well

They said go find a Sunday School, we must have tried them all
 I never stole from the silver plate, my sisters had more gall
 One preacher said sing out loud and clear, it's the only life you've got
 And the next one said be good on earth, you've another life at the feet of God

(ESTRIBILHO)

My father turned down many a job just to give us something real
 It's hard to be a scientist in the States when you've got ideals
 And mama kept the budget book, she kept the garden, too
 Bought fish from the man on Thursday, fed all of us and strangers, too

But time will pass and so, alas, will most of what we know
 Though tonight my memory's eye is clear as the story's being told
 And I'll play ball with the underdog and sit with the child who's wrong
 Be still when the earth is silent and sing when my strength is gone

(ESTRIBILHO)

Now father's going to India sometime in the fall
They tried to stay together but you just can't do it all
I'll think about him if he goes, there's a little grey in his hair
Though not much because he's Mexican, they don't age, they just prepare

And if he goes to India I'll miss him most of all
He'll see me in the mudlarks' face, hear me in the beggar's call
And mama will stay home, I guess, and worry if she did wrong
And I'll say a prayer for both of them and sing them both my song
