Verse 1:

D
She left the cradle,when she learned to crawl

With Mama on the front porch,she walked off

Headed for the city in a pair of high heeled shoes

A D
And if she'll leave her Mama,then son she'll sure leave you

Verse 2:

D
Don't take it so hard and blame yourself

'Cause you ain't the first one that she ever left
G D
She loves her Mama,but she loves a good time too

A D
And if she'll leave her Mama,then son she'll sure leave you

Verse 3:

D
Oh you can give her love,and you give her hell

No matter what you give her,she wants something else
G D
You know she's gonna do exactly what she wants to

A D
And if she'll leave her Mama,then son she'll sure leave you
