

E            E7   A            E            B            E

The longest train I ever saw, went down that Georgia line.

E            E7            A            E            B                    E

The engine passed at six o'clock, and the cab passed by at nine.

(chorus:)

E                    E7                    A

In the pines, in the pines, where the sun never shines,

E            B                    E

And we shiver when the cold wind blows.

I asked my captain for the time of day, he said he thrown his watch away.

A long steel rail and a short cross tie, I'm on my way back home.

(chorus)

Little girl, little girl, what have I done, that makes you treat me so?

You caused me to weep, you caused me to moan, you caused me to leave my home.

(chorus)
