

In The Window Of My Room

A

I sat in the window of my room

D

Watched you go away

A

E

A

It was all I could do, it was all I could do

You're going away

To leave me alone

In all of this sorrow

In this misery

So, look now, my darling

I'll have to abandon all thought of you

As you're going away

F#m

I still see your dear little hand

D

As it touched mine

A

E

A

Saying goodbye, forever goodbye

A

D

Those words you said to me have broken my heart

A

Yes, they've broken my heart

E

A

They were false and a lie

Goodbye, my dear

Goodbye forever

You're going away, you're going away

F#m

D

death is hard, but your leaving is worse

A

A

Yes, my dear your leaving is worse

So how, my dear

How will I forget you

When I see your face, wherever I go

When I close my eyes

It's sad tho I see you

Your beautiful blue eyes, your beautiful eyes

I sat in the window of my room

Watched you go away

It was all I could do, it was all I could do.
