

The Last Suit You Wear

Larry Sparks

E

Intro: Slowly strum and then do one quick strum and stop

You'll hear it on the recording

E E7 A

Banker Moore's, plane went down, just three miles South of town ///

B B7 E BB7

On a forty, acre farm he foreclosed on //// // //

E E7 A Am

I can hear him, sayin' now, "Money, is what it's all a--bout." ///

B B7 E B B7

Now I can safely say that he's dead wrong-oh-oh--ong // //

E E7 A Am

The last suit you wear, won't need no pockets //// ////

E C#m F# BB7

You can't take it with you, when you go //// // //

E E7 A Am

When that hand full of dirt, goes back into the earth ///

E B B7 E

What you'll be worth, only, heaven knows //// ////

E E7A AmE BB7E BB7

//// //// //// //// //// // // //// // //

E E7 A

"You know!" he always said, "You got to dress for success." ///

B B7 E B B7

And he wore the very best that money could buy-yy-yy--yy // //

E E7 A Am

He made a fortune, in his time, now he leaves it all be--hind

B B7 E B B7

They all write this, on the stone there where he lie-ii-ii-ies // //

E E7 A Am

The last suit you wear, won't need no pockets //// ////

E C#m F# BB7

You can't take it with you, when you go //// // //

E E7 A Am

When that hand full of dirt, goes back into the earth ///

E B B7 E

What you'll be worth, only heaven knows //// ////

E E7A AmE B B7C#mA E

//// //// //// //// //// // // //// //// ////

BB7E AE

// // // // // // // //