

The Wedding Song

by Paul Stookey

Open: G-A-C

G D/F#
He is now to be among you, at the calling of your heart
C G
Rest assured this troubador is acting on his part
D/F# C G
The union of your spirits here, has caused him to remain
Em G D/F#
For whenever two or more of you are gathered in his name
C G-A-C-G

There is love, there is love
GD/F#C
G
Well a man shall leave his mother, and a woman leave her home
Em G D/F#
They shall travel on to where the two shall be as one
G D/F# C G
As it was in the beginning, is now until the end
Em G D/F#
Woman draws her life from man and gives it back again
C G

There is love, there is love
CD/F#
G
Well then what's to be the meaning of becoming man and wife
C D/F# G
Is it love that brings you here or love that brings you life
G D/F# C G
Well if loving is the answer, then who's the giving for
Em G D/F#
Do you believe in something that you've never seen before
C G-A-C-G
Oh there's love, there is love

Hum to 3rd verse

GD/F#C
G
Oh the marraige of your spirits here has caused Him to remain
Em G D/F#
For whenever two or more of you are gathered in His name
C G-A-C-G
There is love, there is love
