Blue eyed darling

The days have passed by slowly
Since you've gone and left me blue
If ever you decide to roam dear
Remember I'm waiting just for you

Won't you be by blue eyed darling
Won't you come back home to me
Don't tell me that you found another
Darling please don't set me free

At night as I lay down to sleep dear
The tears flow down my cheeks
Because you left me such a memory
And now I'm all alone you see

* Refrain

Someday you'll come and I'll be gone dear
Gone out to start life anew
But if you never do return dear
Remember I'll be linely and blue

* Refrain
