Bluegrass Truck Driver

There's a Truck Driver down in old Kentucky
And he loves to listen to that Bluegrass music
Everywhere he goes you can hear that old banjo
And they call him the Bluegrass Truck Driver

When the jukebox starts playing country music
You can bet ti'll have that Bluegrass song
When you hear the guitar and the banjo ringing
You'll know the Bluegrass Truck Driver's back in town

Everytime he goes into a truck stop
He always starts the Bluegrass music spinning
He does that old Kentucky buck then climbs back on his truck
That's why they call him the Bluegrass Truck Driver
