Dreams

I had a dream of you the other night, dear
A dream I couldn't live in true life I fear
You talked with a friend of mine so lovingly
Oh God, Oh God, a crazy dream, please let it be

Dreams, dreams of you, dear
Tears, Tears are so sincere
Love, love, that I can't hide
These dreams are breaking down all my pride

While music played, he danced and held you, oh so tight
The some way we'd when our loves was young and bright
Then he kissed you under light that were so dim
I couldn't stand to see you there alone with him

* Refrain

I realize the dream is only fantasy
Oh, tell me why these dreams seem so real to me
Every night I have this same old misery
I guess it's just because of all my Jealousy

* Refrain
