

Empty arms

You'll own the deed to my heart for a lifetime
It's yours to have and keep or throw away
The memories you have me I'll keep forever
They're all I have but in my heart they'll stay

I've known a long long time, this day was coming
And now I feel relieved that you are gone
But if aomeday you feel, like you could love me
There empty arms will welcome you back home

I'm sure you'll find the happiness you're seeking
The best in life, someday I hope you'll find
And when you do, if I can see you happy
Then maybe somehow I'll find peace of mine
