Face lost in the crowd

I am a face lost in the crowd
A defeated man no one cares about
For the dreams I've had are gone somehow
I'm just a face lost in the crowd

All hopes of wealth and fame are gone
And darkness looms where the sun once shone
No light is there, the fire's burned out
And I'm just a face lost in the crowd

The tears I've shed now blur my eyes
The friends I've known would not recognize
This broken man with no way out
I'm just a face lost in the crowd
