From now on I won't be hanging around

Its a long time I've waited my darling
Just hoping some day you'd settle down
But now its too late it's sll over
From now on I won't be hanging around

From now on I won't be hanging around
From now on I won't be hanging around
I've taken all I can find another man
From now on I won't be hanging around

I've tried and I've tried to make you love me
But bright lights and bright life I've found
Its the only love you've ever known my darling
From now on I won't be hanging around
