I hear a cho cho

I hear a choo choo coming
It's coming down the trak
It's coming taking mu darling
Never to bring her back

My darling left me this morning
She left me feeling so blue
I'm going to rock, roll, and ramble
Try to forget all about you

* Refrain

Well I know I can't forget her
So I won't ever try
I'll go through life a wondering
Until the day I die

* Refrain
