I'm walking

I'm walking, yes indeed
And I'm talking about you and me
And I hoping that you'll come back to me
I'm lonely as can be
And I'm walking your company
And I'm hoping that you'll return to me

What're you gonna do when a woman'drunk
You're gonna sit right and cry
And I'll be right here by your side
And for you pretty baby I even die

* Refrain

* Refrain

What're you gonna do when a woman's drunk
You're gonna sit right and cry
And for you pretty baby I even die

* Refrain
