

Bluegrass Songs - Lyrics
www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

Maybe you will change your mind

The time has come to say goodbye
I hate to part, this way
Our parting ways, have met again
This is goodbye today

Maybe you will change your mind
And if you do, someday you'll find
That I was right, and you were wrong
About the tie, that binds

The tie that binds, our love sweetheart
Was torn to shreds by you
But if you'll piece them up again
We'll start our life anew

* Refrain

You'll find the road, gets longer dear
When I'm not by your side
And I may shed some better tears
My love I cannot hide

* Refrain
