

My aching heart

In time my aching heart will mend
Through all the sorrow that I'm in
And then I'll see the light sweetheart
For someone you will take their place

Oh, I'll stand up and be brave
I'll grieve each minute of the way
And oh the day my tears will dry
I'll forget I've ever lived this lie

I'll pay the price for lovin' you
And live in dreams that could not be
I never thought it'd end this way
But I will smile again someday
