My brown eyed girl

I'll never forget the morning you left me
I tried to smile, but instead I cried
I couldn't hold my tears no longer
The moment you told me goodbye

My brown eyed darling, you know I love you
I'll always be faithful and true
Though tonight you're miles away, dear
I want you back, dear, I'll be true

My darling, I hope you will trust me
Cause I'll be waiting just for you
Night after night upon my bed, dear
I tried to sleep, but I can't for you

I know I can depend on you dear
I hope now soon you'll come back home
I'm hoping and praying for you, my darling
And the day I'll call you my own
