Out on the ocean

I am sailling out on the ocean
Many a mile from this old place
And I wonder little darling
If I'll ever see your face

Do you remember little darling
Just how much I cared for you
When you went away and left me
Now I'm lonesome, sad and blue

I am just an lod true lover
Roming through this world alone
And I have no one to love me
Though this life I'll always roam

Do you remember little darling
On the night we said I do
Now I'm lonesome, sad, forsaken
I am lonesome without you
