

Bluegrass Songs - Lyrics
www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

Say you'll take me back

I'm ready now to settle down
All I've got the days I've roamed
Darling, darling whom I love
Say you'll take me back once more

Another love has wrecked my life
She stole my love for you away
And now I beg you to forget
And take me in your arms to stay

Your loving heart has truned to stone
I know your love for me is cold
But now I need you oh so much
To love with all my heart and soul

* Refrain
