

Bluegrass Songs - Lyrics
www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

Somebody loves you darling

I see the postman coming
He's coming down the street
He's going to bring a letter
He's headed straight for me

Somebody loves you darling
Somebody loves you, I know
Somebody loves you darling
Why did you let them go

There's going to be a wedding
It's going to be next fall
So boys gather round and be ready
I'm going to invite you all

* Refrain
