

Bluegrass Songs - Lyrics

Tell me now or tell me never

I'm alone tonight my darling
With another you have gone
Yet you tell me that you love me
That you'll always be my own

Yet no promise do you give me
When I beg you to be true
You just leave me sadly weepin'
Broken hearted over you

Tell me now or tell me never
You must answer me somehow
For I've grown so tired of waiting
Waiting for your solemn vow

I have always loved you darling
And I tried to make you care
But you've run around with others
Leaving my life cold and bare

With no promise for the future
You have left me here to cry
You must tell me little darling
Let your conscience be your guide

* Refrain
