The fire in my heart

I trusted you dear, what more can I say
How heartbreak and tears is the price I must pay
But weeping will heal a soul in deepair
And there'll come a time when I'll no longer care

You started a flame, a fire in my heart
I thought you'd be true that we never would part
You left me alone and through the long years
The fire in my heart will be drowned out with tears

In this game of love what chances we take
For each heart that's left there another must break
You smile at me dear, I played and I lost
It's all over now and I'm counting the costs

I can't face our friends, the ones we both knew
For they always ask, what's happened to you
I'll go on somehow and hope for the day
The love in my heart will be all washed away

I wonder if you are happy sweetheart
Or do you regret that we're living apart
Come back if you wish but sweetheart return
While deep in my heart that old flame still burns
