

The road

Every man that I ever have known
Says the road gets a little bit longer
Every woman that I've ever loved

Told me so, told me so
Told me there's so much more to go

Little boy with the pretty brown eyes
Knows the road gets a little bit longer
Every man that I've ever loved

* Refrain

There's a friend who left today
Says the load got a little bit stronger
And his mind couldn't face the gain

* Refrain
