There's another baby waiting for me down the line

There's another baby waiting for me down the line
She has got just what it takes and I have got the time
And you have been untrue my darling to the tie that binds
So there's another baby waiting for me down the line

I have stayed awak and wondered wondered what I'm gonna do
While you went out honky tonkin' coming home at two
But tonight I'm all dressed up and feeling Oh so fine
For there's another baby waiting for me down the line

* Refrain

I am not be at home my darling for a day or more
I'll give you just a little taste of walking the floor
You won't need me no longer since I've found out you're that kind
For there's another baby waiting for me down the line

* Refrain
