

C'est La Bonne Rue
(Kaye/Slocum)

Too many people in the world today
Find it so easy, they can hide away
There's too much inside you to throw it away
Don't come running 'less you've got something to say

Can you read
Can you write
Can you read it right

We got to hustle, we got to fight
We got to burn, burn all night

We got to hustle, we got to fight
We got to burn, burn all night

C'est la bonne rue, d'accord

Too many people push and shove
Too many hearts looking to find love
Too many people rushing about
Too many people talking too loud

Can you read
Can you write
Can you read it right

We got to hustle, we got to fight
We got to burn, burn all night

We got to hustle, we got to fight
We got to burn, burn all night

C'est la bonne rue, d'accord
C'est la bonne rue, d'accord

We got to hustle, we got to fight
We got to burn, burn all night

We got to hustle, we got to fight
We got to burn, burn all night

We got to hustle, we got to fight
We got to burn, burn all night
