

Cinderella
(Larry Burnett)

Last December I met a girl, she took a likin' to me
Said she loved me, but she didn't know the meanin' of the word
She imagined love to be grand, me holdin' her hand and Wisperin' sweet things and, cooin' softly like a songbird
Then one mornin' she came to me, with a tear in her eye and a Sigh on her breath Lord she said, "Hon, I'm heavy with child"
I said "God damn girl can't you see, that I'm breakin' my back
Just tryin' to keep my head above water, and it's turnin' me wild Cinderella can't you see, don't want your company
You better leave this mornin' leave today take your love and your child away
No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no; No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no
No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no; No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no
No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no; No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no
Woh, woh, woh...etc. Woh, woh, woh, no Rockin' chair on the front porch, and I'm thinkin' about all the things that I did as a young man, now that I'm old I remember her and the boy, did he have all the toys and the joys
That a young man should have, before he gets too old Cinderella couldn't you see, I didn't want your company
