

Don't Let It Bring You Down
(Neil Young)

Old man lying by the side of the road, lorries rolling by Blue moon sinking from the weight of the load and the buildings scrape the sky Cold wind ripping down the alley at dawn and the morning paper flies Dead man lying by the side of the road with the daylight in his eyes

Don't let it bring you down, it's only castles burning
Find someone who's turning and you will come around

Blind man running thru the light of the night with an answer in his hand Come on down to the river of sight and you can really understand Red lights flashing through the window in the rain
Can you hear the sirens moan?
White cane lying in a gutter in the lane
If you're walking home alone

Don't let it bring you down, it's only castles burning
Find someone who's turning and you will come around
