

Izabella

Hey Izabella

Girl, I'm holding you in my dreams every night.

Yeah, but you know good well baby,

You know we got this war to fight.

Well, I'm calling you under fire

Well, I hope you're receiving me all right.

Hey, Izabella

Girl, I'm fightin' this war for the children and you

Yeah, yeah, yeah, baby!

All this blood is for the world of you.

All your love!

So I hope you save your love, baby

Then I know the fightin' is true.
