

Just Away
(Meridian Green / Gene Parsons / Lenny Laks)

Travel posters on the wall
My bags are packed and in the hall
I'm not sure where I'm going, just away

Take a taxi to the station
Hoping for a destination
I wonder if maybe I'll just stay

I'm leaving though I love you
I can't be part of you
I'm not sure where I'm going, just away

I've got to get away from home
And do some thinking on my own
And find a name for the aching pain inside

You say I'm your one and only
Why then am I always lonely
Full of secrets I'm afraid to share

I'm leaving though I love you
Cause I can't be part of you
I'm not sure where I'm going, just away

I'm not sure where I'm going
Just away, away, away, away
I'm going away, away, away, away
Just away

Travel posters on the wall
My bags are packed and in the hall
I'm not sure where I'm going, just away

And I can't wait to say goodbye
And waste the time explaining why
The time to go will leave and go without me

I'm leaving though I love you
I can't be part of you
I'm not sure where I'm going, just away

I'm not sure where I'm going
Just away, away, away, away
I'm going away, away, away, away
Just away, away, away, away
I'm going away, away, away, away
Just away
