

ONLY WAITING FOR YOU
(Stephen Stills)

I cannot remember feeling Quite so self assured it must have Been back in my teens
I was such a basket case when I was young it's obviously Something that I dreamed
I have always been a most Reclusive kind of guy
When love's around I usually run and hide
But don't you go believin' I was Ever that confused, I was Really only waiting for you

I cannot escape the overwhelming feeling destiny has Taken us in hand
And nothing that we do is gonna Change the way this love affair is Never gonna end
And I know it's hard getting used to the idea
That your lover wants to be your best friend
With a showing of affection and a Measure of romance, this is Really only waiting for you

I've been living by myself I do not Want for someone else at least that's What I like to say
It was working til the other day I Met you and I fell in love from Twenty yards away
I've got one last truly great
Love left in my life
And my heart is tellin' me
it might be you
So forget your disappointments, I'll Forget about my past, I was Really only waiting for you

Really only waiting for you
And what do you suppose that we can do
Anything whatever that you
Want to last forever
Really only waiting for you
