

Sad Eyes
(Graham Nash)

In the morning light I once told you
I will love you all of my life
Then I noticed that you were asleep
But I told you anyway

You were lying warm and tender
Looking lovely in the light
Then I started to think of what you mean to me
And I kissed you

You can really open sad eyes
Just like they say you can
You can really open my mind
To see the better man I am
No more looking through sad eyes

And when the morning came, you looked up to me
You took away my pain
When you told me what could be
So goodbye sad eyes

You can really open sad eyes
Just like they say you can
You Have really opened my mind
To see the better man I am
No more looking through sad eyes
Sad eyes
Sad eyes
Sad eyes
Sad eyes
