

Waiting For Love To Begin
(Pete Kleinow and Gib Guilbeau)

I'm just taking it easy
Waiting for love to begin
It comes and it goes
And it looks like I'm willin' again

Went along for the ride
This time I got high on a friend
I'm just taking it easy
And waiting for love to begin

You don't promise a thing
Oohh ..
You give your love just the same
But you give just the same
And if waitings the game
Oohh ..
I'll just play it until I can win
I'll just play 'til I win

Slowly but surely
I feel your emotions give in
I'm just taking it easy
And waiting for love to begin

I keep feeling my head spin around
I can't keep my feet on the ground
Setting my soul on fire
Burning me up with desire

Bottle of brandy and music we both understood
Taking for granted that all of our feelings were good
Slowly I'm falling and feeling the need of a friend
I'm just taking it easy and waiting for love to begin
Taking it easy and waiting for love to begin
