

What is Meant Will Be written by Gene Clark

So I read every letter
Like every word was crying out
Lines like today I felt much better
Though, but I didn't feel that proud
Yesterday someone whispered out a compliment
My back was turned despite the try
To look around and see what accomplishment
I could have purchased with my pride
What is meant will be
What is meant will be
What is meant will be, yes it will
What is meant will be
Turn your eyes into the moment
What is meant will be
It doesn't matter if it's all what can prove
To gratify a moments pride
Someone special learned to tie their shoe
I can only visualize it had been mine
What is meant will be
What is meant will be
What is meant will be
What is meant will be
What is meant will be, I know
What is meant will be
Turn your eyes into the moment
What is meant will be
