

Who Taught The Night
(Chris Hillman/Peter Knobler)

I walk the streets alone like a man forsaken
You say you can't find me, it's a point well taken
I get advice, I live it to the letter
I say I don't love you but you know better

But this time the night
won't make it right
This time the night
won't make it right

Who taught the night
Who taught the night
Who taught the night
Who taught the night to be lonely

We're standing at the corner of our love and mine
We touch for a moment but you're so hard to find
And I can see baby how this one ends
I'm winning lover and losing friend
