

Baby's Gone-Cal Smith

Author:Conway Twitty and Bill Parks

G C G
My hand is trembling as the key unlocks the door

C G
My legs are shaking as I walk across the floor

G7 C
And my voice squeaking as I call out I'm home

G C G
Do my eyes deceive me are is my baby gone

D7 C G
Baby's gone she couldn't stand to tell me face to face

C G D7
And things just ain't the way they used to be around this place

G C G
Her perfume lingers where she once laid her head

C G
And I can almost taste the teardrops that baby shed

G7 C
As she searched her mind to try to find just where our love went wrong

G C G
But it's ended and it's over and baby's gone
