

If It's All The Same To You-Ray Price

Author:Arthur Hancock

G C D7 G C
If it's all the same to you I'll be leaving in the morning
Am C D7
I'll be going to some different place it's all I know to do
C D7
I have thought the whole thing through
G C
And I can feel the doubts a forming
Am C D7 G
So I'll be leaving in the morning if it's all the same to you
D7 G
It's so hard to bear the thought you might be changin'
D7 G
Especially that you'd want another man
D7 G
But I've never been the kind to try arrangin'
A7 D7
Something that's just not in your plan
C D7 G C
And if it's all the same to you I'll be leaving in the morning
Am C D7
Though my life will be an empty road and lonely without you
C D7 G C
Don't spare me any feelings tell me what your thoughts are forming
Am C D7 G
And I'll be leaving in the morning if it's all the same to you
D7 G
I have tried to give you love and understanding
D7 G
But there must be something you want that I don't have
D7 G
If you've no need to take the treasure that I'm handing
A7 D7
Then I guess it's best we'd take a different path
C D7 G C
If it's all the same to you I'll be leaving in the morning
Am C D7
I can't make it on my own alright it seems the thing to do
C D7 G C
Let's sit down and talk it over and you should take it as a warning
Am C D7 G
Cause I'll be leaving in the morning if it's all the same to you
