

OLDER THE VIOLIN THE SWEETER THE MUSIC-Hank Thompson
Curly Putman

C G7
It seems you think that forty-five is just a little too old now
C
But I'm not ready yet to be put out in the cold now
G7
I got plenty of good love left woman if you'll just use it
C
You know the older the violin the sweeter the music
G7
And I can play a symphony of love
C
Like a thousand violins singing from above
G7
You're gonna really miss my loving one day when you lose it
C
You know the older the violin the sweeter the music
G7
These specks of gray that's in my hair just make me look distinguished
C
They don't mean I'm over the hill baby I'm not extinguished
G7
There's plenty of young girl's waiting for my love honey they won't refuse it
They know the older the violin the sweeter the music
