

The Games That Daddies Play-Conway Twitty

C
He put his arms around her shoulder and with a voice that sounded older
G7
He said mom I got something on my mind
C
I don't wanna bother you but I sure need to talk to you
C
If you can only spare the time

And Mom I hope you understand how much I love and need you
C7 F
And I don't want you to take this the wrong way
C G7
But don't you think I'm old enough and big enough and strong enough
C

My friend Billy Parker's dad came by today to see me
G7
And he wondered if I'd like to go
C
With him and Billy on a hike and maybe camp out overnight
The way I've seen 'em do in picture shows

And there's one thing I'd like to do and maybe if I ask him to
C7 F
He'd sit and talk with me man to man
C G7
We'd only be gone overnight and I could find out what it's like

She quickly turned to hide the tears from her son of seven years
G7
He didn't know she'd read between the lines
C
He'd never really known his dad and although he'd never ask
C
She knew exactly what was on his mind

She searched her mind in desperation six long years of separation
C7 F
Dimmed the words she knew she had to say
C
I hope you're never big enough or old enough or bold enough

G7
I know you need and want his love but son you're the victim of
