

At Mail Call Today

AT MAIL CALL TODAY

-- Gene Autry --

G D7
At mail call to-day love your last letter came,
G
I just stood there smiling till they called my name;
G7 C
As I read it over my skies turned to grey,
D7 G
And tears dimmed my eyes love, at mail call to-day.

D7
I can't understand love what happened to you,
G
The day that I sailed love you said you'd be true;
G7 C
But now it's all over, what more can I say,
D7 G
My poor heart was broken at mail call to-day.

D7
I slept in the foxhole amid shot and shell,
G
I'm telling you darling it's worse than all hell;
G7 C
I thought you would wait love while I was away,
D7 G
But my castles tumbled at mail call to-day.

D7
I hope you'll be happy with somebody new,
G
But always remember my heart beats for you;
G7 C
Good luck and God bless you wher-ever you stray,
D G
The world for me ended at mail call to-day.
