The Missouri Waltz

The Missouri Waltz
J R. Shannon & John V. Eppel

F C7
Hush a bye my baby
F
Slumber time is coming soon
C7
Rest your head upon my breast
F
While mommy hums a tune
Bb
The sandman is callin' where
F
Shadows are fallin'
G7
While the soft breezes sigh
C7
As in days long gone by
F
Way down in Missouri
Where I heard this melody
C7
When I was a little child
F
On my mommy's knees
Bb Dm
The old folks were humming
F
Their banjos were strumming
G7 C7 F
So sweet and low

Dm
Strum strum strum strum strum
Cm
Seems hear those banjos
A7 Dm
playin' once again
Hum hum hum hum hum
A7 Dm
That same old plaintive strain

Dm A7 Dm A7
Hear that mournful melody

Dm       A7       Dm
It just haunts you the whole day long
Bb
And you wander in dreams
F
Back to Dixie it seems
G7       C7       F
When you hear that old time song
F       C7
Hush a bye my baby
F
Go to sleep on mommy's knee
C7
Journey back to Dixieland
F
In dreams again with me
Bb
It seems like your mommy is
F
There once again
G7
And the old folks were strumming
C7
That same old refrain
F       C7
Way down in Missouri
F
Where I learned this lullaby
C7
When the stars were blinkin'
F
And the moon was climbin' high
Bb       Dm
Seems I hear voices low
F
As in days long ago
G7       C7F
Singing hush a bye
