

What's A Girl
by Donovan

We meet across a crowded room
Through the faces in the gloom
We meet on the [?] night
I wanted to hold you

What's a girl like you doing in a century like this?
What's a girl like you doing in a century like this?

In the bar at the end of the rainbow [?]
Shipwreck on the [?]
In the bar at the end of the rainbow
Cast away on the fields
In the bar at the end, in the bar at the end, in the bar at the end
Of the rainbow

I asked you just one more time
What you thought of me in your mind
You said to me, through your eye
That your love will never

What's a girl like you doing in a century like this?
What's a girl like you doing in a century like this?

In the bar at the end of the rainbow [?]
Shipwreck on the [?]
In the bar at the end of the rainbow
Cast away on the fields
In the bar at the end, in the bar at the end, in the bar at the end
Of the rainbow

What's a girl like you doing in a century like this?
What's a girl like you doing in a century like this?
What's a girl like you doing in a century like this?
What's a girl like you doing in a, what's a girl like you
What's a girl like you doing in a century like this?
What's a girl like you doing in a century like this?
What's a girl, what's a girl, what's a girl like you
What's a girl like you doing in a century like this?
