 I went to the doctor, he says I'm alright.

 I knew he was lyin', I'm losing my sight.
 C G C G
 He should have examined the eyes of my mind

 20/20 vision and walkin' 'round blind.

She's gone and left, I feel so alone.
 I carry a heart as heavy as stone.
 I knew she was cheatin', I knew all the time
 20/20 vision and walkin' 'round blind.

With my eyes wide open I lay in my bed.
 If it wasn't for dyin' I wish I was dead.
 But this is my punishment, death is too kind
 20/20 vision and walkin' 'round blind.

You just didn't know her the way that I do.
 You say that she's wicked, and maybe it's true.
 one thing I know, she's no longer mine
 20/20 vision and walkin' 'round blind.

She's gone, she's gone, oh what shall I do?
 you can't be happy if she's there with you.
 Some day the heart will trouble your mind
 20/20 vision and walkin' 'round blind.

A few months ago I inquired about Dink at Yazoo City, Mississippi, her home, she had told me. "Done planted up there," said a Negro woman, pointing to a nearby tree-clad hill. I could see a few slabs of marble shining through the low green foliage. Dink had sung me a spiritual about a lonesome graveyard, with the refrain: "I wouldn't mind dyin' if dyin' was all!"
