

You Gave Me A Mountain 1 by Elvis Presley

G Em
 Born in the heat of the desert
 Am D
 My mother died giving me life
 G Em
 Deprived of the love of a father
 Am D
 Blamed for the loss of his wife
 G Em
 You know Lord I've been in a prison
 Am D
 For something that I never done
 G Em
 It's been one hill after another
 Am D
 I've climbed them all one by one

G C G
 Oh this time, Lord you gave me a mountain
 C G
 A mountain that I may never climb
 C G
 It isn't Lord a hill any longer
 G C G
 You gave me a mountain this time

G Em
 My woman got tired of the heartaches
 Am D
 Tired of the grief and the strife
 G Em
 So tired of working for nothing
 Am D
 Just tired of being my wife
 G Em
 She took my one ray of sunshine
 Am D
 She took my pride and my joy
 G Em
 She took my reason for living
 Am D
 She took my small baby boy

G C G
 Oh this time, Lord you gave me a mountain
 C G
 A mountain that I may never climb
 C G
 It isn't Lord a hill any longer
 G C G
 You gave me a mountain this time
 G C G
 You gave me a mountain this time
