

Is There Something I Can Do?

Words: Fanny Crosby, 1901. Music: Victor Benke.

Savior, may a little child
In its weakness, come to Thee?
Thou wert ever meek and mild;
Can my heart as gentle be?

Refrain

Teach me how, teach me how,
By Thy Spirit lead me now;
So my feet will never stray
From Thy fold away.

Tho' my years are only few,
Gladly I would work for Thee;
Is there something I can do?
Can I ever useful be?

Refrain

Oft I wonder when I hear
Older ones that talk of Thee;
What it is Thy yoke to bear,
Wilt Thou give it, Lord, to me?

Refrain

I will give Thee all my heart:
Wilt Thou help me come to Thee?
Kind and loving as Thou art,
Savior, I would like to be.
