

There Will I Follow Thee

Words: Fanny Crosby (1820-1915). Music: Bentley Ackley (1872-1958).

Whithersoever Thou goest
Let me Thy footsteps attend;
Jesus, my wonderful Savior,
Loving Redeemer and friend.

Refrain

There would I be, there would I be,
Thou who hast labored and sorrowed for me;
Whithersoever Thou goest,
There will I follow Thee.

Over the snow covered mountain,
Out on the wild desert track,
Seeking to rescue the lost ones,
Tenderly calling them back.

Refrain

Telling of hope to the friendless,
Cheering the homes where they dwell;
Going with light and salvation
Into the dark prison cell.

Refrain

Giving relief to the stranger,
Plodding his journey alone;
Sharing the trials of others,
Patiently bearing my own.
