Where I was bound apprentice was down in Northamptonshire,
 Where I did take my lodgings in the centry of a wood,
 With my two metal bullets and my bright shiny sword,
 And it's quickly they did banish me to Edinborough Town.

From Edinborough Town, my boys, I thought it myself good,
 Till I did take my lodgings in the centry of a wood;
 It was through that wicked woman had me surrounded as I were laying
 May the Lord have mercy on me ' cried bold Captain Grant.

Now, here's to my wife and my five children small,
 And since I 've been drinking I have ruined them all ;
 God save 'em and God keep 'em from sickness and from want
 "May the Lord have mercy on me"said bold Captain Grant.
